 - September– (Tentative) Jim Van Landingham workshop or Demo

Jim Van Landingham will not be here for a workshop on Monday due to prior commitments. He is scheduled to visit us on Monday September 12.

Our program on Monday will be a bring your own tree workshop. Bring a tree to work on or one you want some varied options on styling etc. There is usually no shortage of ideas on styling or design changes trees need from our members.

With our trees being drenched in the heat of the sun this week, it is difficult to be motivated to do what we need to do in order to maintain our trees. Despite the thermometer reaching 100° , we still need to repot, prune, and water our tropical trees. This is the time for repotting our bougainvillea, black olive, parrot beak, ficus, lantana, buttonwood, nea, etc. Check Tropical Green Sheets book to see if your tropical tree should be repotted now.
